

Station _____ 19
 Train _____ Engine _____

- I have no orders for _____
- Train orders Nos.

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |

 Have been delivered.
- Proceed. Block is _____
- All trains due up to _____ M. have been represented except _____
- This is your authority to pass Stop-indication for _____ track. Proceed at Restricted speed. Signal indicates Stop account _____

Proceed at Reduced speed expecting to find a train in the block between this station and _____

7. (FOR INTERLOCKING SIGNAL) Proceed from _____ track to _____ track, as though Restricting signal were displayed

Time _____ M. _____ Operator _____

- To clear a train for which there are no train orders.
- To clear a train for which there are train orders.
- For use in manual block signal system territory. If block is not clear leave paragraph 3 blank, using paragraph 5 or 6 as required.
- Notification of arrival and departure of trains.
- To authorize a train to pass a Stop-indication referred to in Rule 509 or, to enter a block in manual block signal system territory as provided in Rule 333. When used account failure of means of communication, Rule 333 this form must be delivered to the operator at the next block station in advance, and the engineman must personally obtain from the operator permission to proceed.
- To be used in manual block signal system territory when a Stop-indication is displayed and it is permissible to admit a following train to a block.
- To be used to authorize a train or engine to pass a Stop-indication only in case of signal failure when switches are in proper position or when signal cannot be displayed for an engine returning to its train. This form does not affect any orders you may have received. Manifest copies must be made for each conductor, engineman and operator, the latter retaining a copy.

Station _____ 19
 Train _____ Engine _____

- I have no orders for _____
- Train orders Nos.

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |

 Have been delivered.
- Proceed. Block is _____
- All trains due up to _____ M. have been represented except _____
- This is your authority to pass Stop-indication for _____ track. Proceed at Restricted speed. Signal indicates Stop account _____

Proceed at Reduced speed expecting to find a train in the block between this station and _____

7. (FOR INTERLOCKING SIGNAL) Proceed from _____ track to _____ track, as though Restricting signal were displayed

Time _____ M. _____ Operator _____

- To clear a train for which there are no train orders.
- To clear a train for which there are train orders.
- For use in manual block signal system territory. If block is not clear leave paragraph 3 blank, using paragraph 5 or 6 as required.
- Notification of arrival and departure of trains.
- To authorize a train to pass a Stop-indication referred to in Rule 509 or, to enter a block in manual block signal system territory as provided in Rule 333. When used account failure of means of communication, Rule 333 this form must be delivered to the operator at the next block station in advance, and the engineman must personally obtain from the operator permission to proceed.
- To be used in manual block signal system territory when a Stop-indication is displayed and it is permissible to admit a following train to a block.
- To be used to authorize a train or engine to pass a Stop-indication only in case of signal failure when switches are in proper position or when signal cannot be displayed for an engine returning to its train. This form does not affect any orders you may have received. Manifest copies must be made for each conductor, engineman and operator, the latter retaining a copy.